Weaving the Threads of Imagination

THE LITERARY COMMITTEE

Welcome to A-lit-reasure, The literary club of our institution, which through its numerous pursuits, functions as a facilitator for the students to hon their literary skills and brush up their creative genius. Inclusivity and heterogeneity of the undertakings, aim to inculcate a holistic exposure, comprising reading, writing, listening and speaking elements, blurring the lines dividing the many domains. The club serves the purpose of cultivating passion for literary forums, and nurturing the imaginative capabilities dormant within one. It acts as a recluse for the students to express themselves through literary media, allowing for true art to shine through, amidst the maddening bustle of college curriculum. The community fosters both interests and talents and caters to the creative longings that we never get to explore.
